UNIT-I

1. Maslow's Theory of Needs is nearly 90 years old and precedes the 3rd and 4th industrial revolutions, which brought in greatly revolutionising technology in terms of computers, communication, automation, and personalisation. Do you think human needs still follow the hierarchy that Maslow theorised in 1935? Justify your answer also illustrating the Maslow's pyramid.	CO-1	BL-3

(OR)

2. What is the Golden Rule? Define Civic Virtue and Anomie. Do you think the Golden Rule can help a society develop civic virtue? Do you think the Golden Rule can avoid anomie in the society? Justify.	CO-2	BL-3

UNIT-II

3. Indian society is diverse but not divisive and thus claims unity in diversity. Do you think Indian society today is united or do you think it is divided? Justify your answer and comment on how harmony can be attained in the Indian society. Do you think the family system of the Indian society is a contributor to harmony?	CO-1	BL-4

(OR)

4. Present an honest example of an ethical dilemma from your life. How did you resolve it at that time? Based on your understanding of value judgement and moral judgement from the curriculum, reflect upon your decision back then. Would you call it a value judgement or a moral judgement? If you had to make a decision about that dilemma today with this understanding, what would the decision be? You may pick such issues where you need not reveal any information that is strictly personal or private.	CO-2	BL-4

UNIT-III

5. List the roles and responsibilities of a professional and explain them briefly.	CO-3	BL-2

(OR)

6. How does one's moral character prepare oneself professionally? Draw parallels between the development of moral character and professional characters, virtues, and/or traits.	CO-3	BL-3
